RESEARCH GRANTS

Current Funding

NIMH – R25 DA051343 (Pilot Award to Huh, PI) $22,000 4/2023 – 3/2025

Advancing the assessment of cultural resilience and stressors among American Indian and Alaska Native populations

This research aims to evaluate the validity and generalizability of AIAN-specific stress and resilience factors in a tribally diverse sample. This study will leverage existing data from 11 community-based research projects (N=14,100; 5 cross-sectional surveys, 6 randomized trials with assessment-only conditions) conducted in partnership with tribal governments and institutions.

Role: Principal Investigator

NIAAA - R01 AA019511 (Huh, Site PI) $521,927 5/2017 – 4/2023

Estimating comparative effectiveness of alcohol interventions for young adults- Subaward to UW

The proposed research expands and enhances an earlier R01 grant (R01 AA019511) focused on pooling and analyzing individual participant data (IPD) from 24 studies (N = 24,336 at baseline; 12,630 randomized) to examine the efficacy of brief motivational interventions (BMIs) for college students by using the cutting-edge methodology with a comprehensive set of data with the end goal of providing an authoritative summary of the alcohol intervention field for adolescents and young adults.

Role: Site Principal Investigator

NIAID –P30 AI027757 (EHE supplement to Lee, PI) $311,000 8/2022 – 5/2023

Implementation of a Culturally Relevant Social Media Campaign to Increase HIV Testing and PrEP uptake in Latinx MSM in King County, WA

This Ending the HIV Epidemic (EHE) CFAR supplement focuses on community engagement and applies an innovative strategy to increase knowledge of HIV status and pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) use in Latinx gay, bisexual, and other men who have sex with men (MSM). Our equity-focused project is co-led and developed by community members and builds upon a well-established partnership between the University of Washington (UW) and Entre Hermanos—a Latinx LGBTQ+ serving community-based organization (CBO) in King County, Washington (WA).

Role: Co-Investigator

NIMH - R01 DA056416 (Walters/Johnson-Jennings, co-PIs) $3,591,207 6/2022 – 4/2026

Wakaya: Rising Up for Choctaw Youth Health

This R01 application responds to PAR 18 324 “Testing Interventions for Health-Enhancing Physical Activity” and is a multi-level 12-month physical activity intervention that is designed to increase physical activity and reduce sedentary behavior among American Indians. Secondary outcomes include alcohol, tobacco, and other drug (ATOD) use risk prevention and health leadership program. This project will include 176 at-risk Native youth across 4 communities (44 youths from each community) in the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma.

Role: Co-Investigator

NIMH - R25 MH084565 (Walters, PI) $1,249,994 7/2021 – 4/2026
Indigenous HIV/AIDS Research Training 3 (IHART3) Program

IHART3-Itza will develop a cadre of culturally grounded Native scholars capable of serving as PIs on extramurally funded HIV/AIDS-related prevention and disparities studies with Indigenous populations. The IHART3-Itza program is based on the success of the first 10 years of IHART (IHART and IHART2-Lauhoe), the only Native-specific HIV/AIDS research education mentorship program in the US. IHART3-Itza extends the reach of the original IHART programs from American Indians/Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islanders, underrepresented racial/ethnic groups, and non-Natives working in Indian Country to include as well the historically underserved Indigenous Latinx Populations (ILP).

Role: Co-Investigator

NIDA - R25DA051343 (Walters/Evans-Campell, co-PIs) $1,344,135 5/2021 – 4/2025
The Indigenous Substance Abuse and Addictions Prevention Interdisciplinary Research Education Program- Training the next generation of Native substance abuse and addictions scientists.

Training the next generation of Native substance abuse and addictions scientists.”

The INSPIRE training program offers a strong emphasis on interdisciplinary training in Indigenous health and health disparities research, with access to scientific mentors across fields. INSPIRE is 24-month-long training program that features individualized mentorship, research and writing retreats, grant development workshops, and seed funding to conduct pilot studies, and travel to attend conferences and meet with mentors and mentorship teams ($22,000 for postdoctoral/early career scientists and $10,800 for doctoral students).

Role: Co-Investigator

NIDA - R01 DA050521 (Evans-Campbell, PI) $3,436,786 4/2021 – 3/2026
Chemawa Hero's Journey of Transformation (CHJOT)

The CHJOT Intervention is an AI-centered, experiential, 12-week behavioral intervention that integrates Discovering Our Stories and Discovering Yiang as well as components of motivational interviewing, information-motivation-behavior, and positive youth leadership development framework for American students at Chemawa Boarding School (ages 14-16).

Role: Co-investigator

NIMHD - R01 MD011574 (Pearson & Kaysen, PIs) $3,265,018 9/2016 – 6/2023
Preventing HIV among Native Americans through the treatment PTSD & substance use

This study proposes a 5-year two-arm randomized comparative effectiveness trial to evaluate prevention of HIV sexual risk behavior by directly addressing PTSD using Narrative Exposure Therapy (NET) or substance use through Motivational interviewing with skill training (MIST) among 200 AI men and women 16 years or older living on or near a rural reservation.

Role: Key Personnel

SAMHSA - H79SM081963 (Pearson, Site PI) $4,999,603 3/2019 – 3/2024
Yakama Nation Healthy Transitions Program – Subaward to UW

This study will provide developmentally appropriate, culturally and linguistically competent services and supports to SMD (serious emotional disturbance or a serious mental illness) youth ages 16-15 in the Yakama Nation through the evidence-based program “Transition to Independence Process” (TIP) model.

Role: Key Personnel

NIMH - P30MH123248 (Simoni, PI) $2,999,027 4/2021 – 3/2025
University of Washington Developmental AIDS Research Center for Mental Health (UW ARCH)

The P30 Developmental AIDS Research Center aims to catalyze research that will transform the epidemic, with a focus on integrating care for mental health and associated behavioral factors into prevention and treatment strategies. Furthermore, we will support and apply the science of dissemination and implementation to enable such interventions to go to scale. Evolving from a year-long strategic planning process, this P30 aims to bridge a considerable gap in HIV behavioral and social science research at the University of Washington. At the same time, it capitalizes on the considerable strengths of the UW’s HIV research centers, training programs, and research.

Completed Funding

NIH/NIDA - R01 DA037176 (Walters, PI) $3,572,176 6/2014 – 5/2022
Yappalli Choctaw Road to Health

This is a 5-year project to refine and test the efficacy of Yappalli Choctaw Road to Health, a culturally-focused, strengths-based outdoor experiential obesity-AOD risk prevention and health leadership program targeting at-risk adult Choctaw women ($N = 150$) across 5 regions of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma.

Role: Key Personnel

National Urban League (Walters, PI) $200,000 9/2020 – 12/2021

COVID-19 Communities of Color Needs Assessment

A comprehensive needs assessment regarding the impact of COVID-19 in racially and ethnically diverse communities.

Role: Co-investigator

NIH/NIDA - R01 DA041486 (Comtois, PI) $2,824,580 8/2016 – 6/2021

Preventing Addiction Related Suicide (PARS) - Controlled Trial of Secondary Suicide Prevention. The goal of this study is to evaluate the effectiveness and utility of the NIDA R21 developed “Preventing Addiction Related Suicide” (PARS) program by utilizing a novel stepped wedge design to evaluate PARS as a selected prevention program to increase help-seeking by clients in community addiction treatment.

Role: Co-investigator

NIH/NICHD - R01 HD082181 (Pearson, PI) $1,554,495 9/2014 – 6/2019

Increasing AIAN Research Engagement through a Culturally Adapted Ethics Training

The overarching goal of the proposed research is to strengthen research capacity and increase AIAN community involvement in NIH-funded research by developing and psychometrically validating a Collaborative IRB Training Initiative (CITI) training that is relevant, passable and accessible.

Role: Research Scientist

NIH/NIGMS AIAN CTRP - 1054GM115371 (Belcourt, PI) $50,000 8/2017 – 7/2018

Adaption and Pilot test of Narrative Exposure Therapy among American Indians Living on the Blackfeet Reservation

American Indian and Alaska Native Clinical Trail & Transformational Research Program (AIAN CTRP).

Role: Mentor (Consultant)

NIH/NIGMS AIAN CTRP - 1054GM115371 (Belcourt, PI) $88,000 2/2017 – 7/2017

Assessing Trauma-focused Interventions for Cultural Adaptation with the Blackfeet Community

American Indian and Alaska Native Clinical Trail & Transformational Research Program (AIAN CTRP).

Role: Mentor (Consultant)

NIH/NIMH - R01 MH098675 (Rao, PI) 9/2013 – 6/2018

Reducing HIV Stigma to Improve Health Outcomes for African-American Women

This project is a randomized controlled trial to test the effectiveness of a stigma reduction intervention adapted for use with African American women living with HIV.

Role: Research Scientist

Department of Defense - W81XWH-10-2-0181 (Comtois, PI)

4/2013 – 4/2018

Military Continuity Project (MCP)

This research utilizes text messaging to create and investigate the efficacy of a Continuing Contacts via Text (CCVT) intervention that extends the continuity of care for Service Members with a recent suicide attempt and/or reported suicidal ideation by sending them non-demanding caring text messages at regular intervals over a 12-month period.

Role: Research Scientist

NIH/NIMHD - P60 MD006909 (Walters, PI)

8/2012 – 2/2018

Indigenous Wellness Research Institute National Center of Excellence

This infrastructure development grant is designed to develop the Indigenous Wellness Research Institute at the University of Washington as a National Comprehensive Center of Excellence devoted to AIAN health and health disparities research and to develop a cadre of NIH-funded AIAN behavioral scientists.

Role: Division Director

Department of Defense - W81XWH-11-1-0164 (Jobes, PI) $2,940,215 3/2011 – 9/2016

Operation Worth Living Project With Suicidal Soldiers at Ft. Stewart (OWL)

This Randomized Clinical Trial (RCT) compares the effectiveness of CAMS versus Enhanced Care As Usual (E-CAU) in a sample of 150 active-duty Army Soldiers experiencing suicidal ideation and/or behaviors.

Role: Research Scientist

NIH/NIDA - R34 DA034529 (Pearson, PI)

$644,668 8/2012 – 7/2015

Cognitive Processing Intervention for HIV/STI & Substance Use among Native Women

This study proposes a 3-year pilot project to culturally adapt and pilot an empirically supported trauma-focused treatment, Cognitive Processing Therapy (CPT) for PTSD, substance use and HIV/STI sexual risk behavior among 50 AI women.

Role: Research Scientist

NIH/NIDA - R01 DA025051 (Larimer, PI)

$2,183,600 2/2010 – 1/2015

RCT of Web vs. In-Person SUD and Comorbidity Treatment

The broad, long-term objective of this research is to reduce the prevalence of disordered gambling and co-morbid substance use disorders and related harm in the population, through development of efficacious and cost-effective indicated prevention/early intervention techniques.

Role: Research Scientist

NIH/NIAAA - R01 AA019511 (Mun, PI)

$2,218,450 4/2010 – 3/2015

Innovative Analyses of Alcohol Intervention Trials for College Students

This project aims to identify mechanisms of change following brief alcohol intervention by pooling existing raw data from 24 intervention trial studies using integrative data analytic techniques.

Role: Research Scientist

NIH/NIAAA - T32 AA007455 (Larimer, PI)

2/2013 – 6/2014

Psychology Training in Alcohol Research

This training grant supports post-doctoral fellows in alcohol research.

Role: Postdoctoral Fellow

NIH/NIMH - R01 MH061957 (Stice, PI) $101,039 5/2004 – 1/2006

Test of a Dissonance Eating Disorder Prevention Program – Minority Training Supplement

This minority training supplement provided training in behavioral health research with a focus on quantitative methodology and the analysis of randomized controlled trial data from an eating disorder prevention study with adolescent females.
